DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-3, drawn to a fungicidal mixture.

Group II, claim(s) 4-8, drawn to a method for controlling rice-pathogenic harmful fungi

Group III, claim(s) 9, drawn to a seed comprising the mixture

Note: The examiner did not put claim 10 in any group because it is non-statutory. Based on applicant's future amendments another restriction may be necessary.

The inventions listed as Groups I-III do not relate to a single general inventive concept under 35 USC 121 or PCT Rule 13.1 because they lack the same or corresponding special technical features:

The special technical feature shared by each invention is the fungicidal composition containing the two compounds recited in instant claim 1. Pees et al. (WO 98/46607, IDS reference, see Abstract) teach the triazolpyrimidine derivative as an effective fungicide (see abstract and page 1). These teachings differ from the limitations recited in the instant claim 1 in that that Pees et al. does not teach the incorporation of metalaxyl-M in the composition. However, Nuninger et al. (WO 96/01559, IDS reference) teach metalaxyl-M as an effective fungicidal agent (see Abstract, and page 3). In view of the combination of the above prior arts modifying the composition of Pees et al. through the addition of commonly known fungicide metalaxyl-M in such a composition will flow logically, because Nuninger et al. teach metalaxyl-M as an effective fungicidal agent. Furthermore, combining two compounds each of which is taught by the prior art to be useful for the same purpose in this case fungi control, in order to form a third composition to be used for the very same purpose is straightforward. The idea of combining them flows logically from their having been individually taught in the prior art.” In re Kerkhoven, 626 F.2d 846, 850,205 USPQ 1069, 1072 (CCPA 1980) (see MPEP 2144.06). One of ordinary skill in the art would have had predicted synergism because individually the two agents are found to be an effective fungicidal agents. Hence, the fungicide composition of claim 1 does not present a contribution over the prior art. As a result, Group I does not share a special technical feature with the Groups II-III. Therefore, the claims are not so linked by a special technical feature within the meaning of PCT Rule 13.2 so as to form a single inventive concept, and unity between Groups I-III is broken.

The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and a product claim is subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be rejoined in accordance with the provisions of MPEP § 821.04. Process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the patentable product will be entered as a matter of right if the amendment is presented prior to final rejection or allowance, whichever is earlier. Amendments submitted after final rejection are governed by 37 CFR 1.116; amendments submitted after allowance are governed by 37 CFR 1.312.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103 and 112. Until an elected product claim is found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowed product claim will not be rejoined. See “Guidance on Treatment of Product and Process Claims in light of In re Ochiai; In re Brouwer and 35 U.S.C. § 103(b),” 1184 O.G. 86 (March 26, 1996).

Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution either to maintain dependency on the product claims or to otherwise include all the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder.

Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01. Filing of appropriate terminal disclaimer in anticipation of a rejoinder may speed prosecution and the process of rejoinder.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

A telephone call was made to Mr. Andrew D. Meikle on September 04, 2009 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.
